

Tear Me Down

Spineshank

You wear a cheap disguise
Your only vice until the end
Don't have an alibi
You never try, you just condemn
You pressure everything
You never bring, you take away
I can no longer breathe
You've taken me and everything too
Far, to me it's so disgusting
Wrong, I push myself away
Far, my sanity is rusting
Wrong, I look the other way
This is a war I can't fight
I can't let you tear me down
I will ignore all these lies
You will never tear me down
I sit and contemplate
How you sedate what's in my head
I will not instigate or emulate
I won't pretend
You'll never understand
Just demand to get your way
How all of this began
I never ran and now it's gone too
Far, to me it's so disgusting
Wrong, I push myself away
Far, my sanity is rusting
Wrong, I look the other way
This is a war I can't fight
I can't let you tear me down
I will ignore all these lies
You will never tear me down
This is a war I can't fight
I can't let you tear me down
I will ignore all these lies
You will never tear me down
Never tear me down, never tear me
This is a war I can't fight
I can't let you tear me down
I will ignore all the lies
You will never tear me down
This is a war I can't fight
I can't let you tear me down
I will ignore all these lies
You will never tear me down
This is a war I can't fight
I can't let you tear me down
I will ignore all these lies
You will never tear me down
Never tear me
Never tear me down
Never tear me
Never tear me down
