Spineshank

I spend my time
Letting these hopeless thoughts run my life
Force me to hide
Just create a truth to all your lies
I will never be the same
So just leave me down while I'm separating
I could never give anymore
All these lies have left me torn
It's only this way falling on my own
I made this mess, now it's over
It was nobody's fault, it was all my own
Everything's wasted forever
The only hand that I know
How to hold belongs to me
How it began
What I thought was right became my insecurity
I will never be the same
So just leave me down while I'm separating
I could never give anymore
All these lies have left me torn
It's only this way falling on my own
I made this mess, now it's over
It was nobody's fault, it was all my own
Everything's wasted forever
It's on my own
It's on my own, go
Weakness becomes me, my faults relieve me
My fear excludes me, turns it against me
My fault, my fear turned it against me
It's only this way falling on my own
I made this mess, now it's over
It was nobody's fault, it was all my own
Everything's wasted forever
It's only this way falling on my own
It's only this way falling on my own
It's only this way falling on my own
It's only this way, it's only this way
It's on my own
It's on my own, my own
