

Becomes The Truth

SPIRIT OF THE BEEHIVE

I walk for a reason
I know when you're down
I walk to your trailer
I walk through your town
But I feel wrong
I feel like a traitor
When I walk to your trailer
When I walk through your town

(Straight to the operator, quick)

Holiness becomes the truth
And no one told me what to do
All of this becomes the truth
And no one told me what to do
