

Tulsa OK

SPIRIT OF THE BEEHIVE

Tulsa, Oklahoma is a nice to place to live
Loaded on the eve of destruction all alone
Orders come through like only manuscripts to read alone at night
Jerome's party was a great success
But no one wanted to see you cry
Twins on the sofa inching closer; in the dark you are all alike
Over on the mountain side you will be called up Show her all the things you learned when you were left to die two hundred years ago
Over, an ending road
Swim back home for the cause
