

Arbor Lane

Spitalfield

You said you would call me or write me a letter. Now I know that forever is not that far from here. You said you were on my side from the start. It's funny how things they work out and our square's not far as wide. I gave everything to you. Would you say what you do? Would you talk like you knew everything we've been through?