Gotta get your filthy hands in everything

Dead set

Always a hella big scene

Ticking time bomb fuck away you ain't blasting me

Booze cruise through bay area hills

Gotta get home fast so you can pop a couple white pills

Shot people doin shot shit

Natural selection take place

Get that bitch fucking killed

What the fucks the matter with you?

Wake up

Messed up you could never really give a fuck

Could you?

No

Break bad I'll watch a bitch choke

Spare me the trouble

But god damn do I wish I could it myself

Dead set

Excuse after excuse

Tell me what I wanna hear

Should have listened when I said to shut your fucking mouth

You have no place

Piss off 500 miles down south

Sensitive subject alert

Stupid fucking games have stupid fuckin prizes

I've been down this road before

You made a mess on my floor

Now you're spillin' up

Clean it up

You wanna sit with the king?

You want the love, you want the fame, you want everything?

Do you know what it takes?

All the sacrifice to stay ahead in this race?

Roll over in pain

Sew your lips shut fuck your opinion on anything

Wanna take me off stage?

Go against me at my own fucking play?

Dead set

How you gonna embarrass yourself like that in front of all your peers?

Dead set

Burn all your bridges cut your ties straight fuck your career

Dead set

I don't wish you well there's a reason you're not here

Dead set

I'd do it myself but you're already
Dead set
