

GAVEL

Spite

Not one to leave with doors left open
Time passing only engrains the disdain

I am judge and jury, ignite the fire, end the charade
Promising your punishment lasts forever in the flame

Walk of shame down to the grave
Judge and jury
Feel the hammer of your fate
Crushed down

Be it merciless
Shut out
Denied by heaven's grace

Amusing your torment
Tortured for the ignorance
Death by execution
Sentenced to oblivion

I will not leave with doors left open
Time passing will only breed a greater hate

Judge and jury, ignite the fire, end the charade
Promising your punishment lasts forever in the fucking flame

I hope Hell's worth every fucking lie
Fuck

Hammer the gavel
Death by execution
Hammer the gavel
Sever the fucking skull

Sever it
Sever it
I hope Hell's worth every lie
