

NEW WORLD KILLER

Spite

Deaf to the voices screaming
I sleep at night
No one to call me crazy
No one to fuck my life

I broke the lock to the box where you remain
Lowered the chain till the noises fade

Silent
I chew over the sound of torment
Stare and revel while you're dying
Witness the soul leave the cadaver
Dormant
As he enters...

Deaf to the creatures screaming
I silenced all of them
Pretend to grieve as they turn into corpses

Breed a new hate while I sit and pray
Ignoring what the voices say
Demise enables me to take solace in what I've become

New world killer

Fuck the ruler that sits at the top
Fuck the prelude, all the names, and the plot
Fuck the angels for all that they took
Fuck the new world where you die by the book

Killer breeding...
A killer breeding...

Took the form of Apollyon
The fallen one, almighty destroyer
Sent from his den as the Angel of Death
Born again to bring all life to an end
