

Remember This?

Spite

Remember this?

Hole through the wall bet your ass I was fucking pissed
Deliberate
You got one I won't be ruined too

So now glass sinks in the bottoms of my feet
I let it sting and the blood seep
You'll no longer get the best of me

My ears crack at the sound
Your yells rang loud and I can't stay silent
I don't miss you I will never go back
You will reach and I'll fight back
All you've ever been is an attack

There's no live in getting beaten to shit
Pushing me towards death I don't want any part of this
I don't want a part of this

Take the shot you'll miss

Remember this?

Running around while you shut me down
I'm less
Deliverance
Seems to be the only way to get your acceptance

The fucking nerve
Years later fucking hit my line
Have you thought about the toll of the abuse on my mind?
Back down memory lane let's take a fucking ride
Remember this?

(Push me)

The thing is, God will forgive me for the things that I've done
. You? God doesn't give a shit about you.

Fuck your jealousy
Fuck this tug of war
Fuck the highs
Can't take the lows
My heart forever sore
My body turns volcanic
Live life in constant panic
I'll dedicate my days killing God so you'll never be forgiven
