

THE DISASTER

Spite

Fear
Undiscovered, unexplored
In the deep recesses of one's own mind
The uncertainty, the insecurity
Of tomorrow
The repetition of misery

Spite

Welcome to the disaster
Splattered in red, this is fucking revenge

Self-reflection, the mirror shows a traitor
Laugh yourself to death, condemned by your creator
Self-serving, so fucking cynical
Everything you are is fucking miserable
Miserable

Look at yourself
Look at your failure
Fucking disaster
Playing God, but where is your savior?
One in the chamber
Meet your maker
A shotgun end, a portrait in red
This is revenge
Splattered on the fucking wall

Make an example out of you
Make an example out of you

Unforgiving, unforgivable
Everything you are is fucking miserable

Look at yourself
Look at your failure
Fucking disaster
Playing God, but where is your savior?

One in the chamber
One in the chamber
Meet your maker
Meet your maker
One in the chamber
Fucking disaster
Meet your maker
Now I'm playing God

Unforgiving, unforgivable
Everything you are is fucking miserable
Miserable

Now I'm playing God
But I'm not your savior
Condemned by your creator
