

Thy Bidding

Spite

Scraping by in this cesspool, take your life's worth, wipe your ass with it

Makes me fucking sick, look down at me forget the word "respect

An over abundant feeling of self-importance, you're all full of shit

Everyone's wearing someone else's face

Blindly following rusted traditions, afraid of everything

I am so fucking over it, I am over human life

I hate the sound of you breathing

I hate that you're alive, so fucking die I've embraced my imperfections, I'll do with the world as I will

The hunt is on, I can taste you on my tongue

Turn me on, I want to feel you panic

I want to feel your anxiety keep screaming, keep screaming for me

Are you afraid?

Have you ever even thought that you might go this way?

Know that you'll die at my pleasure, salivating

I can smell it, fresh meat aroused by violence I'm fucking hard just knowing you're in anguish

Touching myself to the stench of your fear

Pushing farther using every orifice for satisfaction

Pink and red, pink and red, pink and red!

Spilling out your head, pink and red, I want you fucking dead I 've thought it over 1000 times, all the ways I can cross this l ine

I want to rip my way inside

End your shitty excuse of a fucking life

Die! I'm fucking going to hell to sit at the side of Satan

But before I'm dragged beneath the dirt, I'll erase every trace of you I'll kill your family; I always hated them

Set fire to your dreams and piss on the ashes

Slaughter your friends just for knowing your name

And when I'm done with them

You're fucking next!
