

Good Evening

Splendor

I believe in chemicals,
sulking eyes and pretty pink water slides.
I believe in mother,
tragedies and tortured butterflies.

Hello, hello,

(Good evening.)

I believe in solitude, shut your mouth cause there's no point in being rude.
I believe in father,
compromise and Jesus Christ.

I believe in memories,
suicide and heaven and hell.
I believe in color,
remedies and everything I read.
