Monotone

Roll over monotone I've got something to say to you I can't speak in stereo And I don't want you to be confused

There's no need to analyze There's no need to form an affliction You're so bored and paralyzed As you're making another excuse

I can't handle it, I'm intolerant I rip off my shirt and I deal with it I won't throw a fit, I don't give a shit I fall flat on my face in the back Of this one

Collect me monotone 'Cuz I think I'm fallen to pieces I'm so strange, you should've known While I lick all the salt off these wounds

For this one

I'm hating myself for I want nothing else more We have such a strange design
