

Special

Splendor

Better be good, I've said
Better be bad, I've done
Better be told what you want
Better believe in what?

Better to think about it
Better to live without it
Better to be told what you want
Better believe in what?

You think you're so special
You think you're so clean
You think you're just better than me

Well first I chew you in
And then I spit you out

Better to leave, I doubt it
Better to talk, about it
Better be told what you want
Better believe in what?

I wanna let go
I wanna stay home
And be myself
I wanna let go
I wanna stay home
I'm justified

You think it gets better than this?

But should I take you in?
