

Wide Awake

Splendor

Does anybody hear?
I'm sorry that I'm late
I hate to keep you waiting

I try to get it right
But all I get is wrong
My memories are fading long

I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna live myself to the bitter top
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna spin my wheels till I make it stop
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna build my ship till I've had enough
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna dive myself into this water

I'm sorry that I'm late
It happens all the time
And if you walked away
You know you'd do better

I try to get it right
But all I get is wrong
My memories are fading long

I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna live myself to the bitter top
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna spin my wheels till I make it stop
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna build my ship till I've had enough
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna dive myself into this water

As long as I am wide awake
As long as I am wide awake
As long as I am wide awake
As long as I am wide awake

And I left my pieces everywhere
And I sat my arse down on this chair
Come and stare
I'll be here
As long as I'm alive

I'm waking up
I'm waking up

I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna spin my wheels till I make it stop
I'm waking up
I'm waking up
I wanna build my ship till I've had enough
I'm waking up
I'm waking up

As long as I am wide awake (I'm waking up)
As long as I am wide awake (I'm waking up)
As long as I am wide awake (I'm waking up)

Is anybody here?
I'm sorry that I'm late
I have to go
