

Descend

Split Chain

(I'm hoping time won't tell again)

You only get your end when mine seems to descend
The light darkens my eyes, no sight within my ties
I'm hoping time won't tell, where conscious breaks where I fell
There's nothing I can do to be the one to write this again

To write this again, to break my amends
To write this again, to break this

You're calling in to watch this world end up in pain again
You're falling in to crawl back into this life I have lead
You're calling in to watch this world end up in pain again
You're falling in to crawl back into this life, well it's mine

(You see what you want to see)
(And take no thought of me)
(You won't be a force inside this life)

The moment you changed it, I'll never hit reset
Ingrained into these walls, I see the the way you lead me

To write this again, to break my amends
To write this again, to break this

You're calling in to watch this world end up in pain again
You're falling in, well I won't
