

Get Inside

Split Chain

Dreaming of skies, for you
Sleeping inside, see you
The water, it runs blue
Just like you do

There's no way, no way you can drain it out
No way, no way you can save me now

Get inside, get in
Get inside, woah
Get inside, get in
Get inside, woah
Woah

Letting the sound of it washes over me
I'm drowning in all of it, I'm scared to death of me
Betting heaven takes it's toll on you
You're scratching the soul of me
That's just what you wanna be

It's what you want

Get inside, get in
Get inside, woah
Get inside, get in
Get inside, woah
Woah
