

Greyintheblue

Split Chain

I'm the grey in your blue sky
The pain when you don't even try
I'm longing to find
No reprise, no reprise, I'm lost in

You
I'm still waiting for
You
Now I need you more

Write down everything you meant
I'm over what's heaven-sent

Time stands still, so I wait for you to Come around and around, 'cause I just need

You
I'm still waiting for
You
Now I bleed for more

Write down everything you meant
I'm over what's heaven-sent

Piece by piece, the story tells
The truth of a living hell

You
I'm still waiting for
You
I'll be ready for
You
To break me down again
I'm just waiting for the end
