Split Chain

I'm drowning out, my sense is flawed
I'm tired to the bone (Of your lies)
Dragged into your safety hold, I'm sinking down
I'm not waiting to be told, my mind is not yours

Fall into it, you'll never see it
Crawl away, you'll never get better ever

Failing now, take it out

Never was a second gone
Breath held deep in my lungs
Hanging to my last throes
I'm forever falling

Fall into it, you'll never see it
Crawl away, you'll never get better ever

(I'm drowning out, in my throes)

Failing now, take it out

I'm carrying your essence no more
