

Under the Wire

Split Chain

Boil up
The less you see me, weakened all my trust
No luck
In what's intended, nothing to discuss

And you weigh me down
Can't bring me 'round, around, around

Found my way
With no mistakes
You were only dreaming
And I start my fate

On my own
Your words don't waste me
You just tried to save him from me
I'm bittersweet, now you're empty
Home is cynical

And you thought I'd fall
And I gave it all
You weigh me down, and down, and down
And I won't drown

Found my way
With no mistakes
And you were only dreaming
And I know my fate
