

Who Am I?

Split Chain

I ask to be here every time
But it's faith in myself I can't seem to find
And is there truth behind these eyes?
'Cause I believe them every time
Does everybody see inside?

'Cause who am I?
Who am I?
Who am I?

Every voice inside my head
They echo words I never said
'Cause I pick apart the best of me
And now there's nothing left of me
I find it all so tiring
Just want it all to end

'Cause who am I?
Who am I?
'Cause I pick apart the best of me
And I find that I don't care
'Cause who am I?
Who am I?

When it all seems
So uneasy
Complicates me
Completely
It mistakes me

'Cause who am I?
Who am I?

Between a life of mediocrity
Or all I ever wanna be
To show a different side of me
I can't
'Cause who am I?
