

Be There

Spoken

I went to the edge of this world
Hoping to find myself
I'm trying to remind my heart
Of who I was before
Somewhere along the way
You became silent
I thought you had abandoned me
But I couldn't say a word

The thoughts of giving up
The words from yesterday
They say you're not enough
For me it's far too late
You are not strong enough
Can't make it on your own
You should be giving up
Because you're here alone

I need to hear something from you
It feels like I'm drowning
I need to hear something from you
You said you'd always be there for me

I watched the world as it turned grey
I couldn't look away this time
I was begging my heart to forget
The reasons why I was running so far
To escape what I had done
But I was lying to myself
Thinking you were someone else
I gave the world control
Of who I was and what I'd done
Forgotten where I was
And where You had brought me from
My eyes had turned to gray
I was blinded by myself
All these words that I have written
About me and no one else

The thoughts of giving up
The words from yesterday
They say you're not enough
For me it's far too late
You are not strong enough
Can't make it on your own
You should be giving up
Because you're here alone

I need to hear something from you
It feels like I'm drowning
I need to hear something from you
You said you'd always be there
I need to hear something from you
I need to hear something from you

The thoughts of giving up
They say I'm not enough
'Cause you are here alone
You said you'd always be there
You said you'd always be there
You said you'd always be there
You said you'd always be there

I'm coming back to the place
Where I know that I belong
I was mistaken to believe
That I would be there alone
I'm coming back to the place
Where I know that I belong
That I would ever be alone
You said you'd always be there
I'm coming back to the place
Where I know that I belong
That I would be there alone
I'm coming back to the place
Where I know that I belong
That I would ever be alone
You said you'd always be there
You said you'd always be there
You said you'd always be there
I believe that you will always be here
For me
