

Fallen

Spoken

I am confused by the way
I'm burdened by mistakes
That I have made
Longing for answers
Failure and fear
Cripple my heart
God I need you hear
Lost in deception again

We are the fallen
Rising above it all
We are the broken
Healed by the One who calls
We are the fallen
Rising above it all
I am the broken
Healed by the One who calls
My name

I can't remember

Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen

I will not remain the same
Burdened by mistakes
That I have made
Finding the answers
Failure and fear
Broken apart
I know you are here
Washed by redemption within

We are the fallen
Rising above it all
We are the broken
Healed by the One who calls
We are the fallen
Rising above it all
I am the broken
Healed by the One who calls

Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
Before the darkness stole the light

It was stolen from our eyes
Remembering the moments when
I was alive

Failure and fear
Will be torn apart
By the One drawing near
Failure and fear
Will be torn apart
You're no longer welcome here

Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
Before the lies
All of the tears
And the reasons why
I've fallen
