

Hollow and Untrue

Spoken

You come walking in everything begins to change
You think I should know your name
Where do I begin?
You're the one that took their lives
You're the reason we are forced to fight for our lives

You will never take our pride
We will never live your lie
We'll fight to survive
We will not believe your lie
You are the reason the world is falling apart

I've seen, I've seen the worst of you
Your threats are nothing more than
Hollow and Untrue
I've seen, I've seen the worst of you
Your threats are nothing more than
Hollow and Untrue
(Is that the best you can do)

I've seen you before we were face to face
But you didn't have a word to say
You are nothing more
You're nothing but a shadow
A shadow of the past

I've seen, I've seen the worst of you
Your threats are nothing more than
Hollow and Untrue
(Is that the best you can do)

I've seen, I've seen the worst of you
Your threats are nothing more than
Hollow and Untrue
(Is that the best you can do)

You will never be a part of me
I will never choose to be like you
You will never speak a word that's true
I am alive, I'll never be like you
I'll never be like you

I've seen, I've seen the worst of you
(Don't you know that)
Your threats are nothing more than
Hollow and Untrue
(Is that the best you can do)

I've seen, I've seen the worst of you
(Don't you know that)
Your threats are nothing more than
Hollow and Untrue
(Is that the best you can do)
