

Hourglass

Spoken

If I could turn back the...

Time is the killer of dreams
The killer of dreams
The killer of dreams

If I could turn back time
It's the only thing that I
Can never stop or turn around lies
As they dream they fall asleep
And fade away with time

No longer
Believe the lies
No longer
Believe the lies
No longer
Believe the lies
No longer

Time is the killer of dreams
The killer

And I believed the lie
I had to find
The meaning through lenses of fear
All of my dreams coming back to find me
I realize
The reason that I am alive

Faith is the only thing that I have Save this
The world that's falling around me

No longer
Believe the lies
No longer
Believe the lies
No longer
Believe the lies
No longer

And I believed the lie
I had to find
The meaning through lenses of fear
All of my dreams coming back to find me
I realize
The reason that I am alive

The sands of time are no longer
The hourglass is gone

The hourglass
The hourglass is gone
No longer

And I believe in life

I had to find
The meaning through lenses of fear
All of my dreams coming back to find me
I realized
The reason that I am alive
I'll never
Believe the lies
I'll never
Believe the lies
I'll never
Believe the lies
I'll never
Believe the lies
I'll never
Believe the lies
I'll never
Believe the lies
I'll never
