

Memories Are Alive

Spoken

Sleepless
restless I'm waiting on you

And I was strong just for awhile
You went away your memories began to fade
And so I wait (as long as it takes)

Shouldn't this get easier as time passes by?
Or should I try to embrace the memories
in the back of my mind?
No matter how long it takes
No matter how far away
I'll be holding on to them because your memories are alive again

Forgiveness oh God I need your grace
I come to you with nothing Empty handed and afraid

And I was strong just for awhile
You went away your memories began to fade
And so I wait (I'll wait forever I'll wait forever)

Shouldn't this get easier as time passes by?
Or should I try to embrace the memories
in the back of my mind?
No matter how long it takes
No matter how far away
I'll be holding on to them because
your memories are alive again

Bridge
This is just the beginning
So I'll wait and believe that
I'll see you one day when I look into the sky
I'll see you one day when I look into the sky

Shouldn't this get easier as time passes by?
Or should I try to embrace the memories
in the back of my mind?
No matter how long it takes
No matter how far away
I'll be holding on to them because
your memories are alive again

Ending
Because your memories are alive again

Ooh ooh
