

Sleeper

Spoken

Whoa...

Whoa...

Lost and forgotten
In what I thought was my life but
All along I was wrong
Trapped underneath the weight of it all
You took everything away
Away from me

From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now
Our memories will begin to rise
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now
Our memories will begin to rise

I
I've got a lifetime of lessons to live
So get away from me
I'm done
I'm done with the life that I've lived
I'm trying my best to forgive

From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now
Our memories will begin to rise
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now
Our memories will begin to rise

I was asleep
Lost in confusion
Seemed I was sinking
I could not reach you
I was asleep
I could not reach you
Reaching for something
That I could never see

I was lost in a world
That I thought was my own
Torn apart by the wolves
Where no mercy is shown
No mercy is shown

From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now
Our memories will begin to rise
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now

Our memories will begin to rise
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now
Our memories will begin to rise
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
And now

From the beginning
From the beginning
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
From the beginning
From the beginning
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
From the beginning
From the beginning
From the beginning
We've all been asleep
We've all been asleep
