

Phantoms

Sponge Cola

Give me one last moment here with you
Far beyond all hope to make it through
The world we know is ending, we all fall apart
Dancing with the phantoms of our hearts

Blackend sky
I see you in the darkness
Standing fearless
Rising tall
Feel the touch of danger
No surrender

Give me one last moment here with you
Far beyond all hope to make it through
The world we know is ending, we all fall apart
Dancing with the phantoms of our hearts

Save this fight
Lovers torn to pieces
Crimes of weakness
Final call
For now and ever after
I'll remember

To say whatever's still unsaid
To find what once was lost
Now come to be again...

Take my hand
Wherever this may lead us

Give me one last moment here with you
Far beyond all hope to make it through
The world we know is ending, we all fall apart
Dancing with the phantoms of our hearts

Awakening the strength that hides in you
(Wake and show the world what you can do)
Deep within the light is shining through
A brave and new beginning we will never part
Dancing with the phantoms of our hearts
