

1,000 Times

Sponge

Hey, okay, it's just another day
24 useless hours, what difference does it make?
If your heart ain't changed
Things will be okay
If you'll be mine
Hey, okay
So on a different day
Just the two of us stranded
In our own spaces
If this love is fate
True love always waits
And I know

Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine

A thousand times
That's my lover's promise, a thousand times
That love is here to stay
True love always waits
And I know

Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine

In my dreams that's where I'll meet you
Reaching out to stars above you
Call my name I will come to you
I can send my message to you
Eternally soul to soul

Hey, okay, so nothing takes your place
But the world gets colder
Feelings don't fade
But you're so far away
I'm praying for the day
And I know

Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine

A thousand times
That's my lover's promise, a thousand times
That love is here to stay
True love always waits

And I know

Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine

Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine
Hope you'll be mine

Where has my lover gone?
