

Candy Corn

Sponge

Bless you
Bless our victorious war
I pray for you
Blood and candy mixing on
The floor
I close your eyes
Strings of candy corns
A string of pearls
A candy for each day
Each one breathes memories
In a hollow man, who says,
"I hear a voice"
Strings of candy corns
All silhouettes
Walk in front of me
They fear your face
When around their necks
I place these candy beads
Strings of candy corn
