

Tears

Spooky Tooth

Guess this could be the end
Think you've really gone this time
I won't get no more of your love
I should have gone red besides
Because the tears that you don't see
Are the tears behind my eyes
Tears that I can't disguise, so well
So well from you

Got to get to you again
If it takes up the whole day long
Got to make it right with you
Got to right all them wrongs
Because the tears that you don't see
Are the tears behind my eyes
Tears I can't disguise, so well
So well from you

Loving is what you did not get from me
Loving is what you're gonna get now
Just you wait
Wait and see

Got to get to you again
If it takes up the whole day long
Got to make it right with you
Got to right all them wrongs
'Cause the tears that you don't see
Are the tears behind my eyes
Tears I can't disguise, so well
So well from you

Loving is what you did not get from me
Loving is what you're gonna get now
Just you wait
Wait and see, yeah

(Instrumental Break)

Loving is what you did not get from me
Loving is what you're gonna get now, babe
Just you wait
Wait and see

Got to get to you again
If it takes up the whole day long
Got to make it right with you
Got to right all them wrongs
But the tears that you don't see
Are the tears behind my eyes
The tears I can't disguise, so well
So well from you, babe
