

Game 7

Spouse

With his back to the ropes, it's time to float or to choke
Give him the smoke or get smoked
I'm risking it all, it's time to shut up and ball
I'll reach the summit or fall
Man, fuck all of y'all, I'll make you proud of me
I will make all who doubted me bow to me
This is just dedication, preparation, trepidation
I might need medication
Okay here we go
Couldn't win four in a row
I had to dig me this hole
I came too far to go home yeah
I want it all
My back's against the wall
Am I gonna be alpha or beta? I don't know
Bro we're gonna see what I'm made of

It's game seven
I know I made some mistakes
It can't be over today, it's game seven
Somebody give me the ball
I feel like my back's at the wall, it's game seven
[?] I scratch and I fall
I'll leave it all on the floor, it's game seven
And there ain't no game eight

This for the full monty that's the whole shabang
I want all the marbles, it's not game three
Sunday night I got the whole crowd going
Boston Garden, it's what they came to see
My only objective is coming in first
I leave my blood and my sweat on the terp
I tried everything now I got no regrets
And I can't hug you right now, I need a new shirt
Man I'm balling out
This is the moment I thought about
Schemed on it, whole life I plotted out
Someone go get me some water now, gulp, gulp
Look I'm tryna go down like I'm MJ
I'll think about this 'till my end day
Shit I'll dunk it right on your friend's face
On a rampage hey

It's game seven
I know I made some mistakes
It can't be over today, it's game seven
Somebody give me the ball
I feel like my back's at the wall, it's game seven
[?] I scratch and I fall
I'll leave it all on the floor, it's game seven
And there ain't no game eight

It's about to get underway
It's about to get underway, it's game seven
It's about to get underway
It's about to get underway, it's game seven
It's about to get underway

It's about to get underway, it's game seven
It's about to get underway
So I hope that you came to play, it's game seven

One game to sustain a dynasty
Or end it
To run through their usual pregame ritual
Although there's nothing usual about a game seven
"What time is it?"
"Game time"
Only one game left
And that one game

It's game seven
I know I made some mistakes
It can't be over today, it's game seven
Somebody give me the ball
I feel like my back's at the wall, it's game seven
[?] I scratch and I fall
I'll leave it all on the floor, it's game seven
'Cause there ain't no game eight

It's about to get underway
It's about to get underway ('Cause there ain't no game eight)
It's about to get underway
It's about to get underway (There ain't no game eight)
It's about to get underway
It's about to get underway (There ain't no eight, no eight, no eight)
It's about to get underway
So I hope that you came to play, it's only game seven
