

Lifeless

.sPout.

One, two, three, four, five, 666

It seems that I change into a stone, maybe you know this feeling, it's like to feel nothing, it's like to feel useless, this is how I feel now, I feel boneless, but I should be satisfied, in my life everything is alright, that's why I don't understand, that I feel like this, I don't understand it, it feels like to be stuck in a pit

Slowly I'm bleeding out, slowly I fade away, it seems that I become lifeless like a stone, lifeless like a stone, stone-cold and all alone, slowly I'm getting cold, slowly I'm growing old

Maybe I find the reason why I feel so down, why I feel so cold, it seems that I change into a lifeless machine, with lifeless eyes, I feel like I'm caught in ice, emotionless like a stone, lifeless like a picture, I don't know why I feel like that, maybe the answer is in my head, maybe I find it when I dig deep enough

Chorus

I don't want to run around like I'm programmed, programmed to succeed

I'm getting cold - I'm growing old

Chorus

Slowly - I fade away Slowly - I'm getting cold Slowly I'm growing old
