

Not the One

.sPout.

Too late I figured out that you are not the one for me too long I didn't realise all your lies

Now I go through my life with open eyes I go through it with an open mind too long I walked around blind your lies don't touch me anymore they can't reach me cause I'm protected by reality I show my real face you wear a mask to hide your hate

CHORUS: your hate makes you go on (you are not able to stop) yo ur will is not breakable (your will to fuck me up) your will ma kes you go on (you are not able to stop) your hate is not break able (but you can't fuck me up) you can watch me run cause I'm already gone I've finished with you its over and done

Cause you are not the one the one for me you've just played a g ame just played with me (just played with me) now its over and done and now I'm gone cause I figure out

Cause you are not the one the one for me you've just played a g ame just played with me just played with me just played with me just played with me

Too long I didn't realise your lies your lies brought me down n ow I'm back on my feet I'm back on the ground I'm on my way awa y from you and on this way I don't turn around I take the way o f no return now its too late for a U-turn because I'm gone you are the one who's left you can watch me run it's over and done
