SPRINTS

I don't take chances, I blow them
And if I'm in love I won't know them either
Watch you through a screen
What did you mean
This isn't real
And why did I feel
Like I was going to

Die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely
And I'd die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely

I love every flaw, every feature
Don't tell me you need to meet her either
Watch you through a screen
What did you mean
This isn't real
And why did I feel
Like I was going to

Die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely
And I'd die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely, oh

Ashley
I said I'd always catch you sleeping
Softly
While the whole world is still dreaming
Ashley
Why won't you admit all your feelings
Quickly
Don't tell me you have been deceiving

Ashley
I said I'd always catch you sleeping
Softly
While the whole world is still dreaming

Ashley
Why won't you admit all your feelings
Quickly
Don't tell me you have been deceiving

'Cause I'd die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely
And I'd die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely
And I'd die for you
Lie for you
I'd wait out in the middle of the night for you
'Cause I'm crazy, baby
But only lamely
So won't you save me
So won't you save me
