SPRINTS

Walk slow

It's coming 'round the corner, you can hear it call
It's coming 'round the bend, it's moving fast and hard
It hits you like a freight train and your heart is scarred
The tissues soft like membrane
And it falls apart, the sweet stuck in your teeth
Oh, is it you or me? I'm tasting, I can't tell between
The good the bad, the best you ever had, oh, I'm glad

The bitter doesn't make you sad
The tears running down in teams
Oh, I do believe I'll lick them from your cheeks
I'll pull you up the stream, carry crucifix and country
Just to hear you scream, scream and set you free

Fool me once, fool me twice
I'd let her fool me again
She's the danger, I'm the pen
I just wanna play pretend
Share a secret, tell no lies
Put your soul for sacrifice
Purse your lips and let live die
I wanna eat you alive

Check your chest, can it decompress
Oh, is your head a mess? We've got a lot to process
But the plates are full, the dinners in the diner
And I feel the pull of moonlight on the rider
There's a fear inside her, it's bringing up a fire
Pull the spit, burn it higher, let consumption lead desire

Fool me once, fool me twice
I'd let her fool me again
She's the danger, I'm the pen
I just wanna play pretend
Share a secret, tell no lies
Put your soul for sacrifice
Purse your lips and let live down
I wanna eat you alive

I wanna eat you alive
I wanna eat you alive
I wanna eat you alive

The good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
It's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
It's the good, the bad, the best you ever had

It's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
It's the good, the bad, the best you ever had
Oh, it's the good, the bad, the best you ever had

Walk slow, it's coming 'round the corner, you can hear it call
It's coming 'round the bend, it's moving fast and hard
It hits you like a freight train
