Heavy

SPRINTS

Got a simple idea, I'm gonna make it stick
I wanna say this fast, I wanna do this quick
It goes one, two, three, it goes one, two, three
I've got a simple idea, I'm gonna make it stick
I wanna say this fast, I wanna do this quick
It goes one, two, three, it goes one, two, three

Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Like the air is hot and the air is sweaty?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?

And I can't sleep
And I can barely breathe
And I'm watching the world go around the window beside me

I've got a simple idea, I'm gonna make it stick
I wanna say this fast, I wanna do this quick
It goes one, two, three, it goes one, two, three

Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?
Like the air is hot and the air is sweaty?
Do you ever feel like the room is heavy?

And I can't sleep
And I can barely breathe
And I'm watching the world go around the window beside me

And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
And I can't sleep
No, I can't

I'm watching the world go around the window beside me

I've got a simple idea, I'm gonna make it stick
I wanna say this fast, I wanna do this quick
It goes one, two, three, it goes one, two, three
I've got a simple idea, I'm gonna make it stick
I wanna say this fast, I wanna do this quick
It goes one, two, three, it goes
