

Shadow Of A Doubt

SPRINTS

There's an urgent crying
There's an urgent crying in my head
And I am lost
It envelopes as I lie
It envelopes as I dream
And I am lost

There's an urgent crying
There's an urgent crying in my head
And I am lost
I can hear it in my sleep
I can feel him as he breathes
And I am lost
(Huh) I am

There's an urgent siren
There's an urgent siren in my speech
And I am lost
It envelopes as I lie
It envelopes as I dream
And I am lost

I can hear it in my sleep
I can feel it as I breathe
There's a burning in my chest
Maybe this living's not for me
I am callin' out your name
Don't dare say you can't hear me speak
If I gave more than I had
Well, I'd be ripping at the seams

And I am lost
Can't you hear me calling?
Can't you hear me calling?

Would you stop the siren's call?
Can you help me stop the screams?
I am calling out your name
Are you calling out for me?
Would you stop the siren's call?
Can you help me stop the screams?
I am calling out your name
Are you calling out for me?
'Cause I am

Would you stop the siren's call?
Can you help me stop the screams?
I am calling out your name
Are you calling out for me?
I am
'Cause I am
'Cause I am crying
There's an urgent crying in my head
And I am lost
There's an urgent crying
There's an urgent crying in my head
And I am lost

I feel so lost
