Trust

Trust in me my tongue is weaving Words of love you must be needing Trust before the only reason That our love will never weaken Trust in me as someone you love

Trust in me, a little closer Trust the soul in every soldier Trust in me, each beat taps slightly On your door, so now invite me Trust in me as someone you love

Someone that you love Someone that you trust Someone to love you more and more

Trust in me, the words are woven Words of love cannot be broken Trust before a night together The secret's ours in trust forever Trust in me as someone you love

Trust in me as someone you love Trust in me as someone you love Trust in me as someone you love Trust in me as someone you love Trust