

Switching places
Was great fun
All my twisted bones
They felt straight for once
You don't need a plan
Beauty is the devil's shade and I'm a God fearing man
I'm a God fearing man
You don't need a plan
Beauty is the devil's shade and I'm a God fearing man
I'm a God fearing man

I fell into it
I fell into it
We fell into it
Just fell into it
Just fell into it
Just fell into it
