

Roadkill

Squirrel Flower

Sunburn in your eyes
You'll take the long way
Took me by surprise
The sense that I could do it too
This point is the start
And now I'm a builder
And now I'm a builder

Slow down!
Don't want to risk the roadkill
Slow down!
Don't want to risk being overkill

Air is smoky, so you stay in Something's burning you up within
So you blow it up now
So you blow it up now

Slow down!
Don't want to risk the roadkill
Slow down!
Don't want to risk being overkill

Standing brick by brick
Together we stick
To make something bigger
To make something bigger

Slow down!
Don't want to risk the roadkill
Slow down!
Don't want to risk being overkill

Speed up!
I just want to drive where we still can
Speed up!
Leave the house while we still can
