

I don't think it's love
I don't think it's love
I don't think it's love (I don't think it is love)

I don't think it's love, I don't think it's love (why?)
What happened to us?
Supposed to be going forward now it's backwards
I just pull in them rovers, uh
I miss the smell of magnolia, uh
Wanna go home and it's hard
I really just know that I can't
Baby I give you my heart, and you know I won't push it

I was with you in that chaos
Lately fucking my brain up
And I'ma love you 'till the end
In the end, yeah, it's you, and I'm sorry for whatever I did
Pretend to miss you
[?] and you leave, damn I miss you
I'm steady be poppin' them bands, [?]
I gotta put my heart to yours too, cause baby I wanna be yours too
I'm sorry if ever came out my route, this fuss and fighting you can not do

I don't think it's love, I don't think it's love (why?)
What happened to us?
Supposed to be going forward now it's backwards
I just pull in them rovers, uh
I miss the smell of magnolia, uh (hey)
Wanna go home and it's hard
I really just know that I can't
Baby I give you my heart, and you know I won't push it (hey)
