

sevyn interlude

SSGKobe

This is a song for Sevyn

I Could've been a dad, have my own girl
I used to think love wasn't buying pearls now
I got older and I'm brand new
Had to learn that some shit you can't undo
Had to leave the past alone for my own good
Trying to run from it but I'm misunderstood
You would've been spoiled like your mom is
I love sore when I had lighten
Baby you my sun the room we writing
I give love, you love, and we excited
Off them percs, I get mad, we fighting
You know what I did, ain't no hiding
Freshen up your life like I'm trident
She wanna hit my phone, stay the night then
Hold my hand, go to sleep till the night ends
Trying to quit all drugs bae I'm trying Slaying all my demons I'm fighting
I do you wrong, hate seeing you crying
(Hate to see you cry)
