

Super Bad

SSGKobe

I'm so super bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so, soo bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so super bad and I'm trying to change

Bae, I'm super bad and I'm trying to change
My mind so cloudy
And I'm stuck in rain
I'm so glad you're here
Glad I still see your face (Still see your face, still see your face)
Glad I still see your face (Still see your face, still see your face)
Glad I still see your face (Ooohh)
Glad I still see your face (Aa-aa-ah)
Glad I still see your face

Ey
I'm glad I still see your face
That's that shit I can't replace
So many days I remember
Not feeling safe in my brain
Yeah, you take away all my pain
You make me feel okay
When I'm not okay
Okay, okay
But ever since you came
I swear I been so unphased, by the rain
You became, my umbrella-ella
Through the stormy days (Stormy days)

I'm so super bad
I'm so, soo bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so, soo bad
I'm so super bad
I'm so super bad
And I'm trying to change (I'm so, I'm so)

Bae, I'm super bad
And I'm trying to change
My mind so cloudy (So cloudy)
And I'm stuck in rain
I'm so glad you're here (Glad you're here)
Glad I still see your face (Still see your face, still see your face)
Glad I still see your face (Still see your face, still see your face)
Glad I still see your face
Glad I still see your face
Glad I still see your face
Glad I still see your face
Glad I still see your face
Bad I still see your face
