

Back to You

St. Lucia

Oh, you can't escape the chemistry
In your heart or in your memory
In the moment where I lose control
I can't fight it when it's taking hold

Hey, hey
I don't know what could make me feel this way
Hey, hey
Something about it that I can't explain
Hey, hey
Open the door now baby turn the page
Hey, hey

'Cause when I'm falling back to you
Feels like I'm swimming in the ocean
You know that it's the simple truth
No, not just some foolish notion

Yeah, you can't pretend to have it all
When your face is flat upon the floor
I will hold you 'til the bitter end
I will take the time to make amends

Hey, hey
I'm so sorry that you feel this way
Hey, hey
There are some things that you can't explain
Hey, hey
Open the door of your golden cage
Hey, hey

'Cause when I'm falling back to you
Feels like I'm swimming in the ocean
You know that it's the simple truth
No, not just some foolish notion

And when I'm falling back to you
You know I'm sleeping in the open
Under a blanket of starlight
I know you'll fix it when it's broken
That's why I'm falling back to you

'Cause when I'm falling back to you
Feels like I'm swimming in the ocean
You know that it's the simple truth
No, not just some foolish notion

And when I'm falling back to you
You know I'm sleeping in the open
Under a blanket of starlight
You know I'll fix it when it's broken
That's why I'm falling back to you
