

Popcorn Ceiling

St. Paul & The Broken Bones

Hello darling
I just got your message in space
Hello darling
I just got your message in space
Hello darling
I just got your message in space

It's kinda weird now
I can't confide to you
When I'm stuck in LA

Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up now
Popcorn ceiling stuck inside its gaze
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up now
Popcorn ceiling stuck inside its gaze

I got lost in a bad dream
It was hard to feel anything
I know I missed you so
I missed you so

I missed you so, so hard
I just got your message in space
I missed you so, so hard
(Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up now)
I just got your message in space
(Popcorn ceiling stuck inside this gaze)
I missed you so, so hard
(Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up now)
I just got your message in space
(Popcorn ceiling stuck inside this gaze)
I missed you so, so hard
(Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up now)
I just got your message in space
(Popcorn ceiling stuck inside this gaze)
