

Control Z

Stabbing Westward

You warned me once that every time I hurt you
Another piece of you'd grow numb inside
If I hurt you once too often
You'd feel nothing
God I wish I could undo and turn back time

Control Z cannot undo what's torn apart
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart
Control Z cannot forget all the anger and regret
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart

I'd take back every word I left unspoken
And tell you all the things I was too afraid to say
I'd cherish every moment we're together
These are wasted promises I've made today

Control Z cannot undo what's torn apart
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart
Control Z cannot forget all the anger and regret
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart
Control Z

I wish I could undo and start this over
I wish I could undo and turn back time

Control Z cannot undo what's torn apart
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart
Control Z cannot forget all the anger and regret
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart
Control Z cannot forget all the anger and regret
Control Z cannot undo your broken heart
