

Another Chance

Stacey Q

I miss the way you kiss
And the way you look
I'm an open book
I know each time I think of you
I'm torn apart
My cryin' heart knows

Just a chain of circumstance
We never had a chance

Time flies, tomorrow cries
For yesterday
But we learn the truth today
And with or without you
I will feel the same
We're not to blame 'cause

We're just no good at true romance
Maybe we'll get another chance

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance

I will wait for the day
Even though, you are no where in sight
I don't care what they say
And God only knows how I miss you tonight

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance

I miss the way you kiss
Maybe another chance
Each time I see you ah
Maybe another chance

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance

Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
Maybe another chance
