

He Doesn't Understand

Stacey Q

You can travel the world
You can follow the sun
You can pray for the rain, Wait for love to come
Crazy baby, He doesn't understand

You can try to be happy
You can never succeed
He'll try to lock you up and throw away the key
Baby, he doesn't understand

He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand

You can give him the moon
You can give him the stars
You can give him your money, You can give the most
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand

You can throw him a rope
Save him all of your love
You can show him your virtue, but it never is enough
Crazy baby, He doesn't understand

He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
He's a crazy baby, He doesn't understand
