

Out Of My Heart

Stacey Q

I waited for you
Till the sun went down
You had me so confused
Spinning around around
You never cared enough
To let me know
I don't know why
I ever let you upset me so

You were an angel to me
(Angel, you're an angel)
You just fly away

Now I'm lost in the laugh
So much stronger than you
You can do whatever you wanna do
'Cause you're out of my heart
You're out of my heart
I feel so much better
It's a brand new start
Out of my heart
You're out of my heart

I don't pretend
To blame it all on you
I know what happened
And I know what I shouldn't do
It's so much different
With a tender heart
To be in love
And never ever be torn apart

You were an angel to me
(Angel, you're an angel)
You just fly away

Now I'm lost in the laugh
So much stronger than you
You can do whatever you wanna do
'Cause you're out of my heart
You're out of my heart
I feel so much better
It's a brand new start
Out of my heart
You're out of my heart

You're not around
I can finally breathe
When I look down the road
You're getting harder and harder to see
You can't help me

And I'm lost in the laugh
So much stronger than you
'Cause you're out of my heart

I feel so much better
Out of my heart
You're out of my heart

I'm lost in the laugh
So much stronger than you
'Cause you're out of my heart
You're out of my heart
I feel so much better
Out of my heart
You're out of my heart
